Mr. and Mrs. Will Goin have returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Georgia.

Mrs. Fred E. Weibe and children have returned home from a visit to relatives at Live Oak.

Mr. H. C. Sistrunk, the popular city clerk, has returned from a week-end visit to the beach.

The junior sewing circle of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. L. W. Ponder tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. M. B. Lyles and daughter, little Miss Dorothy, left Monday for a visit to relatives at Irvine and Blitchton—Gainesville Sun.

Mrs. R. V. Dial, of Madison is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. R. Whaley. She is accompanied by her two little daughters, Olive and Mary Van.

Mrs. S. R. Whaley and daughter, Olive, have returned home after a pleasant visit to relatives in Madison. Miss Blanche Whaley will be away a week or ten days longer.

Miss Annie Pope Eagleton has returned from her visit to Bartow and Arcadia. Miss Eagleton was the guest of honor on a number of pleasant social occasions during her visit.

Miss Ruby Pearl Mann, of Winter Haven, who has been the guest for some weeks of Miss Gertrude Brigrance, left this afternoon for St. Petersburg, from which place she will go on home.

Mr. H. M. Hampton returned yesterday afternoon from Asheville, N. C., where he was called two weeks ago on account of the serious illness of his baby daughter. After despairing of the child's recovery for many days, she began to improve, and when Mr. Hampton left she was out of danger.

At their meeting last night the K. of P. made further arrangements about their big picnic Friday. It was decided to hold the picnic at Silver Springs instead of Delk's Bluff, as this will insure a much larger attendance. There will be bathing, a big picnic dinner, and all sorts of a good time, and all the knights and their families are expected to attend.

Mrs. H. D. Todd was hostess of the monthly social of the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. M. McDowell on Fort King avenue. Mrs. Todd was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. McDowell and Mrs. W. W. Condon. A salad course was served by Misses Mary and Anna McDowell, Dixonia Roberts, Katie Mae Eagleton and Rexie Todd.

Miss Gertrude Brigrance entertained a number of her young friends at the Colonial last evening in honor of her guest, Miss Ruby Pearl Mann, of Winterhaven. The evening passed very pleasantly playing games. Misses Dixonia Roberts and Mabel Akin gave several interesting readings and Miss Akin added to the enjoyment of the occasion with some excellent music on the piano. The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers. Ice cream, cake and candy were served by Misses Rebecca Counts and Jettie McConnell. Miss Brigrance's guests were Misses Myrtle Brinson, Dixonia Roberts, Garnet Bose, Mabel Akin, Ruby Pearl Mann, Rebecca Counts, Jettie McConnell, Beatrice Boney and Irma Brigrance; Messrs. Tom Pullen, Carol Blacklock, Harper Akin, Paul Brinson, Leffey Taylor, Harry Cole, C. L. West, Frank Churchill, Leon Brigrance, Ellis Brigrance, Rev. Eugene Reed, Mrs. C. L. West, Mrs. Annie Akin and Mrs. R. E. Brigrance.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Grantham, Mrs. C. A. Perry and Miss Ruth Grantham of Sparr, are visiting at the home of Capt. and Mrs. J. R. Tyner—Clearwater Sun.

News has been received from Col. W. F. Hughey, and he is spending a day or two in Atlanta enroute from Indian Springs to Hendersonville, N. C.—Clearwater Sun.

Mr. Hughey was formerly a citizen of Morriston, and is well known in Ocala.

At a recent meeting of the Dickinson chapter, U. D. C., held at the home of the president, Mrs. E. L. Carney, in Ocala, the ladies considered the matter of taking charge of the dining room at the Marion County Fair this fall. If they decide to do this it is a sure thing that there will be many good things served and it is hoped that all who attend the fair from Alachua county will patronize the good ladies.—Gainesville Sun.

UNVEILING NEXT SUNDAY

Sunday, August 27th, is the day set for unveiling the beautiful monument erected to the memory of Mrs. John T. Lewis in the cemetery at Moss Bluff by the Woodmen's Circle, of which she had been a member for a number of years.

The unveiling ceremonies will be in charge of Grove Circle No. 110 Oklawaha, and Mrs. J. J. Smith, guardian of the circle, will administer the ritualistic ceremonies.

The unveiling will be held at ten o'clock in the forenoon, and will be participated in by members of the circle, the Ocala Eastern Stars of which Mrs. Lewis was a member, and many personal friends from Ocala and other nearby towns.

MOVING PICTURE FEATURES

"The Stronger Love," the Morosco-Paramount photoplay in which Vivian Martin was seen at the Temple yesterday, has beautiful photography. The photography is the best thing about the picture, and is well worth looking at. The picture is faulty in its details of mountain life and character. While not so intended the ending has the effect of an anti-climax.

There is perhaps only one thing worse than a northern writer attempting negro dialect, and that is a northern man attempting mountain dialect. No mountaineer would think of saying to a northerner "You-all kaint write like we-uns talk." "You-all" is plural, not singular.

Holbrook Blinn is here today in "The Weakness of Man," a Brady-World feature, adapted from Count Leo Tolstoy's last play, "The Living Death." It is announced as a "photoplay which tells vividly to what depths a man can sink when the lust of life and pleasure is ingrained so deep in him that domestic life is a torture."

Tomorrow's program is as follows: "The Last Shot," a Lubin drama; "Just Gold," a Biograph drama; Vernon Howe Bailey's sketch book of Chicago; Paramount Bray cartoon.

FIRES AND TOWN PLANNING

Many Instances May Be Cited Where a Little Foresight Would Have Saved Much Money.

Paris, Tex., which recently jumped into notice because fire destroyed the greater part of the town, is busy with plans for rebuilding according to a systematic town plan. A town planner has been imported, and when Paris rises from its ashes it will be a better-built and more convenient town to get around in than it ever was before, if what is accomplished comes up to the expectation of the people.

The people of Paris show a remarkable spirit when they are able to survey their ruined town and still have mind and foresight left to think of town planning along modern lines; but the chances of success would have been better if the plan had been evolved before the fire, when Paris had more time for deliberation and a gradual upbuilding of public sentiment. When the village of Detroit was replanned, more than a century ago, after a fire that burned every building in the place, mistakes were made that plague the city to this day. San Francisco ignored its great opportunity a decade ago. If Chicago had had a town plan back in the 'seventies Chicago's present planning problems might not be half so formidable, and in this country of big fires any city may have its melancholy chance to make new street lines or lay out new parks over its ashes.

The remoteness of the chance that a conflagration will visit any city may seem to make this consideration but a weak argument for town planning, but it is not necessary to burn a whole town down to give the well-matured town plan a chance. In Cleveland not many years ago the burning of a single building gave the city an opportunity to make an extremely valuable street extension in the downtown district. If that particular extension had not been in the public mind for a long while the chance might have been overlooked and a heavy bill for a wrecked building would have been the result when the street was finally opened.—Chicago Herald.

OPEN GARDEN HOUSE

The garden house illustrated here is complete and needs vines only for embellishment. A skeleton roof of rafters only, no sheeting or shingles, could be put up and covered with vines, making an arbor rather than a house. Seats may be built in or movable benches or chairs used.

URGENT CULTIVATION OF TREES

Henry Ward Beecher, Fifty Years Ago,
Sought to Awaken New England to Its Possibilities.

Henry Ward Beecher in "Norwood," 50 years ago, said: "I have often marveled that, in a time of such taste and liberality, so little should be done with trees. New England might be a magnificent park, with but a slight expense, if only one dedicated himself to doing good through the love of beauty. Every great road, every by-road, connecting towns and villages, or neighborhoods, if concert was secured, might not only be judiciously planted, but, by a little study and care in the selection, all the fine trees might in time be employed until every county would become an arboretum. Such is the spirit of emulation that if a single town should perfect this work, other towns would catch the inspiration, and the work would go on with energy until all uncultured roads would become a reproach."

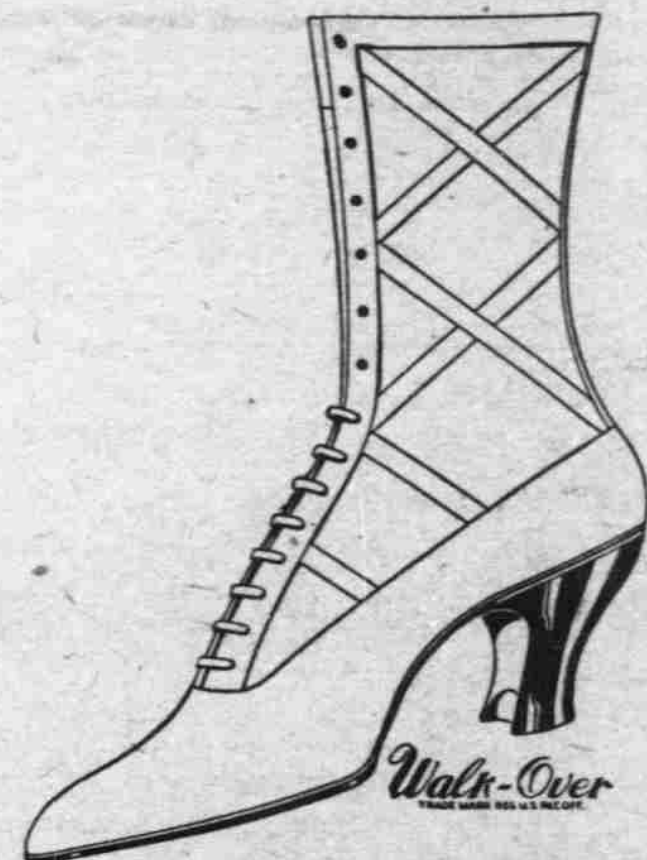

Roses for Oregon School Yards.
Many Oregon school yards that have been without flowers will blossom with roses in a year or two, and others that have not been altogether strangers to roses will have more of them, if 3,500 hardy little bushes that are to be sent out from the university gardens this spring manage to survive the trials of being transplanted. Each spring at pruning time thousands of rose slips cut from the bushes on the university campus are planted for distribution the following spring to high schools of the state, to public buildings, libraries, hospitals and other suitable institutions. From twelve to twenty bushes are sent in each package.

CURE FOR CHOLERA MORBUS

"When our little boy, now seven years old, was a baby he was cured of cholera morbus by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Mrs. Sidney Simmons, Fair Haven, N. Y. "Since then other members of my family have used this valuable medicine for colic and bowel troubles with good satisfaction and I gladly endorse it as a remedy of exceptional merit." Obtainable everywhere. Adv.
